office and without them he is nothing. If it is argued that though his functions are suspended between the time of the arraignment of the President at the bar of the Semete and the date of his conviction he is attimited the president, we reply that his oath requires him to excent the office of President so long as he is President, which again upsets the theory we are endeavoring to controvert.

In any possible view in which the subject can be examined it seems clear that the President cannot be divested of his authority until he has been convicted of crime and ejected from his office.

The Democratic Party.

It is with sincere pleasure that we com-mend the apirit of recent editorials in lead-ing Hobson papers of the State. They clearly recognize that as to National poli-lics there are but two parties—the Rad cal and the Democratic—and are nearly as convinced that this must be true of State politics. There can be no middle ground nor a successful third party. We will gledly welcome every conservative man who voted for Gen. Hobson into our ranks. We do not ask them to take back asstances will tions. We have such an organization—let us maintain it.

We believe it of great importance in accomplishing this result that the Democratic convention be postponed until May 1st; and we are glad to see that every Democratic paper, that has spoken at all, has come out warmly for this postponement, except our able cotemporary, the Yeoman. The Lonisville Conrier, Danville Advocate, Elizabethrown Banner, Cynthiana News, Maysville Bulletin, Keutucky Seutinel, Mercer Banner, and others, have ably urged the central committee not to call a convention until atter Congress adjourns and line spring elections are over. We cannot don't that this almost unanimons voice of the party will be obeyed by its committee. But whenever held, lel it be The Itemocratic Consention; and its nominees must be men in whose devotion to principle, no shaken conrage and thorough identification with the interests of Kentneky, the people have implicit confidence. And whether they have been Federal or Confederate soldiers, or neither, whether they served in
